

CERTIFICATE OF ATTENDANCE

This is to certify that dr Adinta Anandani, SpMK
as a Participant

In the webinar held by Sulianti Saroso Infectious Disease Hospital, Ministry of Health, Republic of Indonesia, in collaboration with WHO South East Asia Regional Office

THE EMERGENCE OF NIPAH VIRUS INFECTION :
HOW TO PREVENT, DETECT, AND RESPOND
26 OCTOBER 2023

President Director

dr. Alvin Kosasih, Sp.P(K), M.K.M
NIP. 197306182009121001

MATERI

NO	MATERI	SPEAKER
1	Kewaspadaan Terhadap Virus Nipah di Indonesia	DR. dr. Maxi Rein Rondonuwu, DHSM, MARS Direktur Jendral Pencegahan dan Pengendalian Penyakit (P2P) Kementerian Kesehatan RI
2	Kesiapan Layanan Kesehatan Menghadapi Ancaman Virus Nipah di Indonesia	dr. Azhar Jaya, SKM, MARS Direktur Jendral Pelayanan Kesehatan Kementerian Kesehatan RI
3	Introductory Remarks	Dr Edwin C Salvador Regional Emergency Director (RED), Health Emergency Programme WHO Regional Office for South-East Asia
4	Nipah virus epidemiology and ecology: considering the risk of henipavirus emergence in the South East Asia Region	Dr Jonathan Epstein Vice President for Science and Outreach, EcoHealth Alliance, USA
5	Laboratory diagnosis of Nipah virus infection and testing strategies	Dr Pragya Yadav Scientist F and Group Leader, Indian Council of Medical Research National Institute of Virology, India
6	Nipah virus: Surveillance approaches and outbreak response	Dr. Sharmin Sultana Senior Scientific Officer, Dept. of Virology of IEDCR
7	Nipah virus disease - Clinical presentation, management and key considerations for infection, prevention and control	Dr Anoop Kumar, Director, Critical Care Medicine, Astar MIMS Hospital, Calicut, Kerala, India

